

The United Way Women Who Rock Scholarship covers childcare costs and other critical resources to support parents who are committed to continuing their education beyond high school. Recipients of this scholarship are provided financial and employment coaching.

The United Way Women Who Rock Child Care Scholarship has supported more than 140 parents as they have pursued post-secondary education and has celebrated 25 (and counting!) graduates.

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP

The Scholarship covers childcare costs for parents pursuing post-secondary education. This includes bachelor's degrees, associate degrees, and professional certifications.

Scholarship recipients must meet the following criteria:

- Have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5
- Have attained a high school diploma or equivalent.
- Participate in an interview process with the Women Who Rock Scholarship Committee
- Provide copy of Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) award letter.
- Live in our four-county service area (Montgomery, Waller, Fort Bend and Harris)
- Applications will be accepted through May 20, 2024.

Parents who are awarded scholarships commit to:

- Partnering with United Way to select their childcare program.
- Keeping their United Way liaison updated on their progress.
- Participating in financial education classes.
